CDA National Reserve Work & Travel - Cook

HOST INFORMATION

Company Description:

CDA National Reserve is Located within 5,000 acres of pristine wilderness, CDA National Reserve is an ideal retreat in the spring. Having recently undergone a multi-million-dollar investment in renovations, this private golf and sporting club is now designed for adventurers seeking laid-back luxury. As the temperatures start to warm up and golf becomes a regular activity once again, CDA National Reserve is renowned for its Tom Weiskopf-designed golf course, where fairways wind through lush forests alongside glistening lakes and jagged granite cliffs. Imagine teeing off with the call of a bald eagle above or pausing your drive to let moose pass—wildlife sightings are common, especially in the “Front 10” wooded acres. For those seeking more relaxation, head to The Clubhouse, where you’ll find a restaurant, shops, wine cellar and a cigar lounge. If you’re ready for fun on the water, you can head to The Lakehouse for a custom boat cruise, kayaking, wakeboarding and more. For the true adventurer, The Outpost offers an advanced fitness center, racquet sports and a rock-climbing wall. The Outpost also provides members with the CDA Explorers Kids camp. Where kids get to participate in fun outdoor adventures.
