HAP Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge - Room Attendant

HOST INFORMATION

Company Description:

Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge is located just one mile from the entrance to the world-famous Denali National Park, home to North America's tallest peak, Denali. Surrounded by mountains, forests, rivers, and abundant wildlife, this mountain resort offers an unforgettable Alaskan experience.

As part of Holland America Princess Alaska-Yukon, the largest tour operator in Alaska and the Yukon, you'll work alongside team members from around the world while delivering exceptional hospitality to guests visiting one of Alaska's most iconic destinations. During your time off, enjoy hiking, wildlife viewing, rafting, flightseeing, and exploring Denali National Park.

Employees enjoy competitive wages, opportunities for overtime, and, at many locations, the option to work a second job to maximize earnings. Our employee referral program also offers bonuses of up to $400 for referring friends to join our team.

Living and working at Denali Princess provides a unique cultural exchange experience where you'll build lifelong friendships, develop valuable hospitality skills, and experience Alaska's rich natural beauty. We foster a supportive, team-oriented workplace where every employee contributes to creating memorable guest experiences. Summer temperatures typically range from 60–75°F (16–24°C) during the day with cooler evenings, making it ideal for enjoying Alaska's outdoors.

ARRIVAL INFORMATION

Arrival Instructions:

Participants should fly into Fairbanks International Airport (FAI). Fairbanks is the closest major airport to Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge, and the drive to the lodge is approximately 110–125 miles and generally takes about 2.5 to 3 hours, depending on road, traffic, and weather conditions.

Employer-Provided Transportation
Complimentary transportation from Fairbanks to Denali Princess Wilderness Lodge will be offered on designated employee arrival dates. Transportation is not available every day, so participants must coordinate their travel plans with their manager before purchasing a flight.

Participants should plan to arrive only on the dates and during the arrival windows provided by their manager.

Please send the following information at least two weeks before traveling to the United States:
Full name as shown on your passport
Arrival date and time
Airline and flight number
Departure cityMobile phone number
Social Security appointment plans
Any changes or delays to your itinerary

Send your travel details to:
Local Contact: [Manager or HR contact name]
Email: [Email address]Phone/WhatsApp: [Phone number
Do not travel from Fairbanks to Denali until your transportation arrangements have been confirmed.

If complimentary transportation is not available on your arrival date, a public or privately arranged shuttle may be available for approximately $75 per person, at the participant's expense. The price and availability are subject to change and must be confirmed in advance.

Fairbanks International Airport also lists local shuttle and taxi providers on its ground transportation website:https://dot.alaska.gov/faiiap/transportation_Options.shtml

Participants are responsible for making and paying for alternate transportation when they arrive outside the designated employer transportation schedule. Please do not take a taxi or rideshare service to Denali without first confirming the total cost, as the lodge is more than 100 miles from Fairbanks.

Social Security Instructions
Participants must apply for a Social Security number after arriving in the United States. Because Denali is a remote location and returning to Fairbanks can be difficult and expensive, participants should complete their Social Security application in Fairbanks before traveling to the lodge.Plan to arrive in Fairbanks on a weekday and allow enough time to visit the Social Security office. Social Security offices are closed on weekends and federal holidays, and an appointment may be required. Participants should confirm the office location, operating hours, appointment requirements, and required documents before traveling:https://www.ssa.gov/locator

Do not schedule your flight to arrive late in the day or on a weekend if you still need to complete your Social Security application. Participants may need to arrange overnight accommodations in Fairbanks at their own expense while completing this process.Transportation During the SeasonBeginning in June, a weekly employee shuttle to Fairbanks is generally offered for shopping and essential errands. Space and schedules may be limited, so participants should plan ahead and follow all lodge transportation procedures.

This shuttle should not be relied upon for the initial Social Security application unless specifically approved and coordinated by management.

Please immediately notify your local contact if your flight is delayed, canceled, or changed. Participants who arrive without confirmed transportation may be responsible for arranging and paying for transportation and lodging until the next available shuttle.
